

Ganduje accepts to dialogue with AbdulJabbar, other scholars

Kola Oyeleru | Kano

AFTER a special meeting between the Kano State governor, Dr Abdullahi Umar Ganduje and Islamic clerics from all Muslim sectors on the need to allow for a dialogue between AbdulJabbar Sheikh Nasiru Kabara and other scholars, the governor has disclosed his decision to hold the dialogue in a few days.

This is just as Ganduje notes that the dialogue would be aired live on all radio stations, both local and foreign.

Recall that the state government had earlier banned Kabara from preaching in the state and security operatives were deployed to his mosque to ensure that he did not preach again.

According to the state government, his preaching is said to be inciting while the Islamic scholar however alleged that the banning has a political undertone.

Abba Anwar, the Chief Press Secretary to the Kano State governor, noted that the proposed dialogue will have many prominent scholars from all sectors in attendance. He disclosed that the Commissioner for Religious Affairs, Dr Muhammad Tahar Adam; Chief of Staff to the governor, Ali Haruna Makoda and former gubernatorial candidate in Kano, Malam Saluhu Sagir Takai, among others will also be present.

Anwar further noted that some prominent scholars would also be invited from outside Kano to witness the dialogue.

He said, "The government will provide a venue for the dialogue and the necessary security for the overall safety of the exercise, before, during and after.

"Those to be involved from all Muslim sectors are given two weeks maximum, to go and prepare their points of argument/dialogue for engaging AbdulJabbar in the much waited dialogue."
